AWC Community Projects Guidelines

The American Women's Club is committed to supporting social welfare projects in Thailand. We will consider funding the following areas:

- * Community self-help or income generating projects: Provide funds, supplies, or equipment to projects benefiting a community or group.
- * Medical: Provide funds or supplies to hospitals, clinics, schools or orphanages.
- * Nutritional: Provide funds or supplies for nutritional programs.
- * Education: Provide funds for books, supplies, scholarships, playground equipment, or teacher's salaries.

NOTE: Projects that support or benefit one individual are generally not selected for funding.

Requests should be made using the Project Proposal Form. Mail your request to the following address:
